

Singapore Xiangqi General Association 2022 Asian Games Athletes Selection Policy

INTRODUCTION

This selection policy describes the process and procedure to select athletes who will represent Singapore in Xiangqi event in the 2022 Asian Games staged in Hangzhou, China.

Due to the current COVID-19 pandemic situation, SIXGA did not hold the annual national Xiangqi Championship in 2020 and 2021. It is also not practical to organize any large-scale selection tournament at this moment. The possibility of organizing online tournament is ruled out, as cheating using computer software has been rampant in online competitions, and it has proven hard to clamp it down.

However, SIXGA has decided to make its selection early, as we would like to prepare our athletes early by intensive trainings (which can be done through internet), with professional coaches from overseas.

The intend of this document is to set out a selection process which is fair, objective and transparent.

SELECTION PANEL

The SIXGA executive committee has nominated the following personnel to sit in the selection panel:

1. Lee Sit Seng (President)
2. Chow Kim Sun (Vice President)
3. Au Bok Soon (Secretary-General)
4. Chan Mau Yin (Dy Secretary-General)
5. Loh Jun Yu (Chairman Qualification)

The role of this panel is to oversee the entire selection process and ensure that it is carried out in accordance with the policy.

2.3 Selection Process for mix team event:

2.3.1 All athletes selected for individual events shall also be selected for the mix team event. In case there are insufficient number of athletes to form the team, following process shall apply.

2.3.2 Ranking of athletes:

The rankings of the athletes are based on the following criterion:

- (a) Performance of the athletes in the National Championship, Division A (from 2017 onwards);

(b) The Grading Points of the athletes as at 31 Dec 2020.

A. National Championship (Division A) Performance:

A1. Base Points (N1):

Position	1 ST	2 nd	3 rd	4 th	5 th	6 th	7 th	8 th	9 th	10 th	11 th	12 th	>12 th
Pts (N1)	10	8	7	6	5	4.5	4	3.5	3	2.5	2	1.5	0

A2. Weightage according to year (N2)

Year of Championship	2019	2018	2017
Weightage (N2)	70%	20%	10%

A3. Points obtained from National Championships (N)

$$N = N1(2019)*N2(2019) + N1(2018)*N2(2018) + N1(2017)*N2(2017)$$

B. Athletes' Grading Points (As published in SIXGA's official webpage)

B1. Base Points (G1):

Grading Pts	2100	2000	1900	1800	<1800
Points (G1)	10	8	6	4	0

Points showed in the above table serve as a guide. The exact point (G1) is obtained from the following formula:

$$G1 = 10 - 2*(2100-Grading Point)/100, \text{ where Grading Points} \geq 1800$$

B2. Weightage according to the year an athlete last joined a qualifying competition

Date athlete last took part in competition	After 1/4/2019	From 1/4/2018 to 31/3/2019	From 1/6/2017 to 31/3/2018	Before 1/6/2017
Weightage (G2)	100%	50%	10%	0%

B3. Points obtained from Athlete's Grading Points (G)

$$G = G1(\text{Base Points}) * G2(\text{Corresponding weightage})$$

C. Total Ranking Points (R): Total points for ranking purpose is calculated by the following formula:

$$R = N*6 + G*4$$

2.4 Selection Trials

Athletes who achieved top 6 positions in the above ranking process will be invited to participate in a selection trial. Winners will be nominated to make up the required number of the mix team event.

3. Final Selection

SIXGA will shortlist appropriate number of athletes based on the above process and invite them to join the Asian Game 2022 team. Nomination will be done after athletes' reply to the invitation and the selection trial (if necessary).

Based on the above process, SIXGA will nominate the athletes and submit the nomination to SNOC. Final approval and selection of players for the Asian Games resides with the Singapore National Olympic Council.

 9. If, in the event of Point 7, more Athletes are selected by SNOC than the competition event allows, SIXGA will then select the Athletes based on any previous Selection Trial. If There was no such Selection Trial, then the Selection Committee shall select the Athletes with the best recent results in International Competitions.
